33 Years of AIR Programs

Serving Our Native Communities and Youth Through Educational Services

AIR Programs has proudly served our Southern California region for over 33 years, through our mentoring, tutorial, and after-school programs. Our programs provide our Native youth the tools needed to compete and succeed within the academic setting and create opportunities that motivates them towards higher education. Support our AIR Programs by becoming a sponsor of this years', 33rd Annual Awards and Fundraiser Banquet! The evening's events will include presentations highlighting this year's accomplishments and awards for our students, mentors, and community members.

2026 Accomplishments:

Over 100 American Indian youth and community member participants / Students accepted at SDSU/UC Berkeley/UCLA/CSUSM/UCI/UCSD/Clark University and more. Collaborations with UCSD and SDSU providing Native Youth the opportunity to earn university credit through our restorative justice projects. Development of our May 1st Law Day event at SDSU and more importantly creating lasting friendships.

Your Sponsorship Supports:

Tuition for our students within our restorative justice projects / continued outreach and culturally based educational services to our American Indian youth via Fall, Spring, and Summer youth programs / tutorial programs / and education based scholarships.

By becoming a sponsor you will help our program outreach to our American Indian youth through our mentoring, tutoring and juvenile justice programs. These programs are designed to create opportunities to expose students to higher education and thereby providing them the tools needed to compete within the academic setting and reduce juvenile delinquency through our juvenile justice project. We ask for your support as we continue to provide our youth the opportunity to reach their greatest potential so that they may lead our many Tribal Nations towards a greater future.
